

Anthem for a Spa Girl (sung to the tune of Bon Jovi's "Dead or Alive")

Lyrics by Tiffany Corbin and Misty Goldstein

It's all the same, only the names will change
Can't you see – they need a spa girl today?
Another place where the faces are so old
I'll Spa tonight –then count the cash at home

Chorus:

'Cause I'm a spa girl, in my mustang I ride
And I'm wanted for a spa tonight.

Sometimes I sleep, in the middle of the day
While the people I meet, they just work their day away
Sometimes you tell the day
By the clients that you see
And times when you're alone, when you dream of Gary...:)

Repeat Chorus

I walk these streets, a loaded spa bag on my back
I use set sheets, always buy the product pak
I spa everywhere, and yeah, I have a ball
I see a million faces an I lift 'em all!

I'm a spa girl, in my mustang I ride
I'm wanted for a spa tonight
I'm wanted, I got TFF on my side
I'm wanted for a spa tonight
